Christmas Club Accounts Spreading Cheer to Santa's Shoppers

Tis the season to start shopping! And if you've been saving all year for Christmas shopping in your Christmas Club Account, your funds will be available on November 1.

Tired of money problems during the holiday season? Say hello to a Christmas Club Account. Your contributions, plus interest add up during the year. In the fall, you receive a lump sum in time for holiday shopping. Contributions can be made through payroll deductions, automatic transfer, or regular deposits throughout the year and there is no minimum balance. Avoid those financial strains at the holidays by setting aside money all year.

Stop by or call to open your Christmas Club account today!

Lorene Garcia Retires after 31 years

On July 30, 2010, our long time bookkeeper, Lorene Garcia, retired after 31 years of service with West Denver Community Credit Union. We would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge Lorene's commitment to the credit union and our members, and thank her for her years of dedicated service.

It's impossible to measure what Lorene has meant to our credit union over the years. And, it's difficult to say goodbye to a friend and co-worker who has meant so much to this organization. But, we are happy that Lorene will now have time to kick back, pursue her passion for painting and enjoy more time with friends and family.

We wish you all the very best in your new life that is just beginning! And, thank you for your many years of dedicated service.

17th Annual Christmas Stocking Raffle

Help Support the St. Vincent De Paul Society

The holidays bring with it West Denver Community CU's Annual Christmas Stocking Raffle. The oversized stocking contains more than $100 worth of toys and games that will make any child squeal with delight on Christmas morning.

Tickets are $1.00 each and we encourage you to purchase as many tickets as you can afford. Not only does this increase your chances of winning but all proceeds go to the St. Vincent De Paul Society who in turn helps those who might not even have a Christmas without the generosity of people like you, our members.

Happy International Credit Union Day 2010!

On October 21, we're celebrating a special day, and you're part of it. Join us to celebrate International Credit Union Day with this year's theme "Local. Trusted. Serving You." Given the resiliency that credit unions and other cooperatives worldwide have shown throughout the economic recession, this year's International Credit Union Day theme focuses on credit unions' trusted, community-focused approach to member service.

In celebration of you, our members, West Denver Community CU will be serving cookies, coffee and cider throughout the day. This International Credit Union Day, we are excited to be a part of your hopes and dreams. Thank you for being an important part of West Denver Community Credit Union. Its members like you who help make us a truly special organization - You own your credit union, and we are here to serve you! We look forward to seeing you.

Privacy Policy

Your West Denver Community Credit Union is committed to providing you with competitive products and services to meet your financial needs and help you reach your goals. We are equally committed to protecting the privacy of our members. Under federal law, we are required to give you this privacy notice. It describes our credit union's privacy policy and practices concerning the personal information we collect and disclose about our members. It also includes information about the parties who receive personal and sometimes non public information from us as we conduct the business of the credit union.

If after reading this notice you have any questions, please contact us at (303) 936-2299 or write to:
 West Denver Community Credit Union

Information We Collect About You

We collect non public personal information from you from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you on applications and other forms.
- Information about your transactions with us.
- Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency.
- Information obtained when verifying the information you provide on an application or other forms; this may be obtained from your current or past employers, or from other institutions where you conduct financial transactions.

We may disclose all of the information we collect, as described above, as permitted by law.

Parties Who Receive Information From Us

We may disclose non public personal information about you to the following types of third parties:

- Financial service providers, such as insurance companies, mortgage service companies, and securities broker-dealers.
- Non-financial companies, such as consumer reporting agencies, data processors, check/share draft printers, financial statement publishers/printers, plastic card processors, non-profit organizations, government agencies, payroll deduction-SEGs, auditors, and loan collection agencies.

Disclosures of Information to Parties That Provide Services to Us

In order for us to conduct the business of the credit union, we may disclose all of the information we collect, as described above, to other financial institutions with whom we have joint marketing agreements, to other companies that perform marketing services on our behalf, or to nonaffiliated third parties for the purposes of processing transactions and services that you request or authorize, so that we may provide members competitive products and services.

We may also disclose non public personal information about you under circumstances as permitted or required by law. These disclosures typically include information to process transactions on your behalf, conduct the operations of our credit union, follow your instructions as you authorize, or to protect the security of our financial records.

To protect our members' privacy, we only work with companies that agree to maintain strong confidentiality protections and limit the use of information we provide. We do not permit these companies to sell the information we provide to other third parties.

Disclosure of Information About Former Members

If you terminate your membership with West Denver Community Credit Union, we will not share information we have collected about you, except as may be permitted or required by law.

How We Protect Your Information

We restrict access to non public personal information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, or procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your non public personal information.

What Members Can Do to Help

West Denver Community Credit Union is committed to protecting the privacy of its members. Members can help by following these simple guidelines:

- Protect your account numbers, plastic card numbers, PINs (personal identification numbers) or passwords. Never keep your PIN with you card, which can provide free access to your accounts if your card is lost or stolen.
- Use caution when disclosing your account numbers, social security numbers, etc. to other persons. If someone calls you explaining the call is on behalf of the credit union and asks for your account number, you should beware. Official credit union staff will have access to your information and not have to ask for it.
- Keep your information with us current. If your address or phone number changes, please let us know. It is important that we have current information on how to reach you. If we detect potentially fraudulent or unauthorized activity or use of an account, we will attempt to contact you immediately.

Let us know if you have questions. Please do not hesitate to call us, we are here to serve you.
